

To complement our standard NDS Surgical Imaging warranty program, we are proud to offer more benefits through an Advanced Exchange Program (AEP), at an additional cost.

- In case of product failure, NDSsi will ship overnight a new or factory certified replacement product
- With an AEP you will be up and running again with minimum downtime
- NDSsi will pay for the cost of shipping the replacement product to you, as well as return of the original unit
- An AEP can be purchased with a new product or within 30 days of new product purchase
- The AEP is available for EndoVue®, ZeroWire®, ConductOR™, and ScaleOR™ products
